

Dear newlyweds-to-be

Congratulations on your forthcoming church wedding!

If you are marrying in a church that is not where you live, by law your local parish church will need to be told so they can 'read your banns' – that's when your names are read out at three church services.

If you're not sure how to find your local church, we can help. Just fill in this card and post it back to us. Or email the same information to weddings@c-of-e.org.uk

Your local church will pray for you, and of course the Vicar and people will be there for you after your wedding day, if you need them.

So we'll be back in touch soon with everything you need to contact your local church. And we wish you a lifetime of love that grows within God's protection.
