

To have and to hold
from this day forward

for better, for worse

for richer, for poorer

in sickness and in health to love and to cherish

till death us do part

Congratulations on your forthcoming church wedding!

The vows you will make to each other are at the heart of your wedding day – you can only make promises this big in church. They are designed to last a lifetime.

To help you keep them, you will have the support of your family, friends, your church and, of course, God.

With that in mind, we'd like to hear more about you and your hopes for your marriage, and offer you some time and space to think about your vows and the difference they will make. You will be very welcome.
